Please, carefully read the different procedures on the following page.

Procedures for Entering México

Please remember that all foreigners, regardless of their nationality, are required to present a valid and not expired passport or travel document when entering Mexico (traveling by air, land or sea). It must be valid during the entirety of your trip.

Procedures for Entering the United States of America

According to U.S. Government (<https://www.usa.gov/enter-us>), American citizens entering the U.S. must show a valid passport, U.S. passport card, Trusted Traveler Program card (NEXUS, SENTRI, Global Entry or FAST), or an enhanced driver's license. If you have any questions, contact your carrier to find out if they require a specific document.

Lawful permanent residents of the U.S. need to show a Permanent Resident Card (Green card). A passport is not required.

Canadian citizens can present a valid passport, Enhanced Driver's License, or Trusted Traveler Program card (NEXUS, SENTRI or FAST).

Mexican citizens are required to present a passport with a visa, or a Border Crossing Card.
